

1. What are three Criteria of organizing Public Art Projects?
 - a. Time, Artist, Client
 - b. Scale, Time, Budget
 - c. Scale, Scope, Project Length
 - d. Material, Budget, Artist
2. What is the most important aspect of understanding a public art process?
 - a. Materials
 - b. Budget
 - c. Client Vision
 - d. Timing
3. What are some of the tools in researching and choosing an artist? Circle the one that DOES NOT belong.
 - a. Utilizing the Visual Listening Process
 - b. Identifying a budget
 - c. Reviewing existing works
 - d. Preparing RFQ/RFP
4. How long does a typical public art project take?
 - a. 2-4 months
 - b. 24-36 months
 - c. 12-18 months
 - d. Over 2 years
5. What are some strategies for working within a budget? Choose all that apply.
 - a. Changing material
 - b. Reviewing another artist
 - c. Changing scale
 - d. Discussing options with client

6. What are the important aspects of a budget? Choose all that apply.
 - a. Defining disbursement
 - b. Defining costs of artist and cost of installation- together or separate as budget item
 - c. Preparing a master budget for multiple sites
 - d. Understanding and laying out a payment schedule
7. What was one of the lessons learned from the 1st National Project with the prairie animals/wagon trails?
 - a. Understanding the limitations of budget
 - b. Working on contracts
 - c. Understanding the importance of scale
 - d. Looking at material
8. What are some ways to insure proper installation? Choose all that apply.
 - a. Secure permits
 - b. Price out materials
 - c. Address irrigation and lighting
 - d. Contract negotiations
9. To insure a smooth installation what should be considered?
 - a. Understanding the scope of work
 - b. Choosing material
 - c. Determine delivery dates and times
 - d. Producing a product
10. Why is Collaboration so important between artist and Landscape Architect? Choose all that apply
 - a. It helps determine liability
 - b. It defines distinct roles
 - c. It creates partnerships and a united vision of the project early on
 - d. It creates a better project and more smooth experience for everyone.