PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Project Name: _____

Project type (Select one):

Constructed project

Unbuilt project (unrealized, planning, or research)

Describe how the project, initiative, or collaboration advances diversity, equity, inclusion and justice through landscape architecture, urban design, planning, or related fields. The narrative should explain how the work meets criteria listed below and indicate whether the submission is a constructed or unbuilt project (including planning, research, or advocacy efforts). Must meet at least 5 of these for either category.

Built Projects

- Relevance to equity, inclusion, and social justice in today's built environment
- Meaningful engagement with historically marginalized or underserved communities
- Depth and authenticity of community partnerships and co creation
- Equitable access to environmental, social, cultural, and recreational resources
- Measurable positive impacts on community well-being and quality of life
- Long-term inclusion, stewardship, and sustainability of outcomes
- Policy, advocacy, or institutional impact that supports just landscapes
- Design excellence that reflects community awareness and respect.

Unbuilt Projects

- Relevance to equity, inclusion, and social justice in today's built environment
- Meaningful engagement with historically marginalized or underserved communities
- Depth and authenticity of community partnerships and co-creation
- Equitable access to environmental, social, cultural, and recreational resources
- Policy, advocacy, or institutional impact that supports just landscapes
- Innovation in participatory design, engagement, or implementation
- Educational or capacity-building components
- Design excellence that reflects cultural awareness and respect
